Imad Jaber ABUHELWE

Born in Amman 08/10/1967

I started working in the Forex field in 2002 with the Arab American Financial Investments Company in Abdoun and continued with the company until 2006. Then I moved to Sarah Financial Investments Company in Amman as a financial analyst responsible for writing a daily report on market movement. After that, I was transferred to the Zarqa branch as a branch manager. My success in managing the branch was given to me as the head of the control and quality department, responsible for all the company's 5 branches.

In 2008, I submitted my resignation and became an agent for the Palestinian Trend Line Company in Amman until 2009, after which I moved to work in Egypt, where I established a private company in the field of Forex until 2018.

He holds a diploma in business administration from the Arab College in 1988

I have no objection to working in any position in the company

Active, I love team work
